FG IV – Archive Officer - Joint Research
Centre's Institutional History Project (iHiP)

Position for:

FG IV-
Archive Officer

As the science and knowledge service of the European Commission, the mission of the DG Joint Research Centre (JRC) is to support EU policies with independent evidence throughout the whole policy cycle.

The DG JRC is located in 5 Member States (Belgium, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands and Spain). Further information is available at: <http://www.jrc.ec.europa.eu>

This position relates to the DG JRC's Institutional History Project (iHiP) and will be located in Ispra, north Italy. Administratively it is linked to the Unit for Interinstitutional, International Relations & Outreach.

The mission of the Unit is, inter alia, to manage DG JRC's relations with its strategic stakeholders and to coordinate the DG JRC's communication strategy.

The iHiP aims to produce an official, scientifically correct, description of the 60+years of the DG JRC's institutional history. To this end it creates a modern archive for the DG JRC and produces historical highlights, i.e. stories relating to interesting and relevant events and periods in the DG JRC's history, and other communication and outreach products.

This position contributes to the following aspects of the iHiP:

- Digitising the documents available in the 5 sites of the DG JRC;
- Analysing the digital copies, and supervising the correction, if possible, of proposals of a software for
 - the metadata needed to create a functional digital archive;
 - deciding if a paper copy has to be retained;
 - identifying documents relating to relevant historic events and patterns and to contribute in this way to training the software pipeline with a view to reach a correctness of 80% to 95%.
- To prepare, in cooperation with other iHiP team members, historically correct highlights of the history of the DG JRC and other communication and outreach items for the iHiP;
- In the longer run the job-holder will contribute to preparing the official history of the DG JRC, based on (but not exclusively) the complete and comprehensive digital historical archive of the DG JRC.
