- the coordination of JRC’s activities in nuclear safeguards and CBRN security;
- the coordination of the collaborations and R&D Euratom agreements with EU Member States, third countries, international organisations such as the IAEA and other international partners, including Generation IV International Forum;
- the coordination of JRC’s activities in nuclear science applications (not related to energy production).

WE PROPOSE:
A position as project manager to support its coordination activities in the fields of nuclear safety, nuclear waste management and decommissioning.

Main tasks will include:

- to support the coordination and follow-up of the JRC activities and collaborations related to nuclear safety, nuclear security and safeguards, nuclear decommissioning, and other related areas, within the JRC and with other stakeholders;
- to draft, review and follow-up administrative and technical documents and reports related to the Euratom activities of the JRC;
- to assist the coordination of JRC support to EU nuclear related policies, including the organisation of, consultations, evaluations, monitoring and follow-up meetings related to the implementation of the work.

WE LOOK FOR:
The successful candidate will have:

- University degree or equivalent education;
- A minimum of five years recent experience in the management of international projects and/or work in multidisciplinary teams, preferably in nuclear research related areas;
- A good knowledge of the Euratom programme, as well as EU policies and functioning of the EU Institutions;
- A strong problem-solving attitude, proven communication and drafting competences, good interpersonal skills, the ability to work in a team, the capacity to take initiative, and to work responsibly and autonomously.
- A very good knowledge of written and spoken English (minimum B2). A good level of French can be considered an advantage.
