FG IV - Project Officer - Quantitative
Researcher in the Field of Education Economics

Position for:

FGIV - Project Officer - Quantitative Researcher in the Field of Education Economics

As the science and knowledge service of the Commission, the mission of DG Joint Research Centre is to support EU policies with independent evidence throughout the whole policy cycle.

The JRC is located in 5 Member States (Belgium, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands and Spain). Further information is available at: <https://ec.europa.eu/jrc/>

The Human Capital and Employment unit of JRC (JRC.B4) wishes to recruit a quantitative researcher in the field of education or labour economics to work in the "education and skills" scientific project. The project, in support of EU Education and Training 2020 policies, will raise empirical evidence in the area of formal, informal and non-formal education at EU and Member State levels through economic and statistical analysis of large educational data bases.

The successful candidate will be expected to support the Education and Skills team in the quantitative analysis of EU education & training data and indicators, analysis of surveys, and policies in a life-long learning approach. She/he should have a solid background in at least one of the following fields: education economics, education, social science or labour market research. Expertise in the use of econometric / statistical techniques, methods to analyse European/international education datasets (e.g. LFS, PIAAC, PISA) and monitoring of statistical indicators is required. Familiarity with the design/development of empirical research in support of policy making is desirable. Excellent communication skills, relevant scientific publications, experience in dissemination of results from research are also required. Experience in the management of research projects would be an asset.

Candidates should have a PhD (doctoral diploma) or a minimum of 5 years professional experience after university studies of at least 3 years attested by a diploma. A good level of written and spoken English is essential.
