| Position for: FG IV Technical support officer Environmental Product Policies | Short description of activity : The product policy supporting group, as part of the Sustainable Production and Consumption Unit, is looking for 4 researchers to contribute to the support of environmental product policies. The group supports the implementation of the EU's Ecolabel Regulation (EC 66/2010), the EC communication on Green Public procurement (COM (2008)400), the ErP 'Ecodesign' Directive (2009/125/EC) and the Energy Labelling Directive (EU 2017/1369). Environmental product policies are supported and implemented by the group in consultation with stakeholders and adopted by the Commission and then published for use in the Member States. The successful candidates are expected to develop a broad evidence base that feeds into the different policy instruments. Typical product groups under analysis range from end consumer products such as furniture or textiles, to complex energy using products such as computers or data centers. Qualifications: We are looking for environmental scientists or engineers with a good knowledge of environmental analysis and techno-economic evaluation. For this post it is important to have a good understanding of the environmental impacts related to products, with a view to their whole life cycle. Knowledge of environmental legislation in the EU and in the Member States as well as a thorough knowledge of general product policies at EU level are an advantage. A good understanding of market analysis is required. It is important to have an open mind and positive attitude with the ability to assess submitted information; and to be able to assist the lead expert in discussions and meetings as well as to be able to communicate and assist in the negotiations with high level representatives. The successful candidates will be self-motivated and able to manage a project to deadlines. Candidates must have at the time of applying a PhD or 5 years' research experience after university studies of at least 3 years attested by a diploma. A very good level of written and spoken English is essential and knowledge of at least one other EU language is compulsory. |
